Tour Down Under

Stage 1 of the Santos Tour Down Under is rolling along right now. Go to http://twitter.com/SantosTDU_Live to keep track of the action. I'm still trying to find a place to stream the video which is proving to be a challenge since I'm in Canada.

I've found an audio stream here: <http://www.abc.net.au/adelaide/onair/891stream.asx>

Wishing that I could listen to Phil Liggett and Paul Sherwen but the Australian ABC coverage will do in a pinch.

Good luck to all the riders in the first Pro Tour event of the year. Starting the countdown to the big Tour as you may know.
