

Bridging the gap to Private Cloud - #vBrownbag at VMworld

UPDATED - 8/31/2013 - added embedded video for my session

As a part of the VMworld conference, the #vBrownbag community is streaming some amazing sessions today and tomorrow live! I'll be giving a 15 minute presentation titled "Bridging the gap to Private Cloud" at 4:30 PM Pacific (7:30 PM Eastern), so watch below and let me know what you thought.

Here is the link to my session, and below you will see the entire line of sessions that were offered.

The sessions were all recorded and can be viewed here:
