

Brace Yourselves, #vDM30in30 is Coming

It's that time of year again! We are launching the fun, and challenging #vDM30in30 event to celebrate community and creativity in its finest form.

As you may recall last year, we had our first effort of #vDM30in30 which created an incredible amount of content among all of the participating authors. Here are the basics of it:

- Anyone can participate
- 30 posts in 30 days - no specification of when you post, so it can be 5 in a day with 4 rest days
- Post to Twitter with #vDM30in30 hashtag so that people can follow along
- It's difficult, but super helpful for spurring creativity
- It's fun! No, seriously, it is a lot of fun being a part of this
- Word counts don't matter
- Subject is up to you
- Have fun!!

Follow along on Twitter by using the #vDM30in30
